THE BODIES OF THE CONSPIRATORS DISINTERRED.

Removal of Booth's Bedy.

The Secret History of Its Burial.

On Tuesday last, in accordance with orders received at the Washington Arsenal by Gen. eral Ramsey, Commandant of the Post, from General Grant, Secretary of War, the bodies of the assassination conspirators, as also the body of Henry Wirz, the Andersonville jailor were removed from their graves and reinterred in another portion of the grounds. This removal was rendered necessary in consequence of the projected improvement of the Arsenal Grounds; the contractor for the removal of the old penitentiary building, Mr. J. T. Stock bridge, being about to commence work.

It will be remembered that after the execution of Mrs. Surratt, Lewis Payne, David E. Herold, and Geo. A. Atzerodt, which took place on the 8th of July, 1865, the bodies were lowered and placed in white pine boxes, and were immediately interred in graves just south of the scaffold, near the east wall of the enclosure, Mrs. Surratt being placed in the north grave and the others in the order in which they stood on the scaffold. Subsequently a plain white head-board was placed at each of the graves, on which the names of the parties were painted in black letters. Afterwards some posts were planted and a slight fence was erected around the graves. The body of Henry Wirz, the Andersonville jailor, who convicted by a Military Commission which sat in the Court of Claims Rooms at the Capitol, and who was hung at the old Capitol Prison, November 10th, 1865, was also taken and buried just south of the grave of Atze-

The body of J. Wilkes Booth, the principal of the conspirators, who was killed in the attempt to capture him at Garrett's farm, near Fort Royal, on the Rappahannock river, on the 26th of April, 1865, was buried in what was known as the ware-room of the Penitentiary building, (that portion between the part used as a dwelling by the Warden and the prison proper.) and in this connection it seems to be the proper time now to give the following particulars, heretofore unpublished, concerning the secret interment of the remains: The body of Booth, with Herold and the captors-Lieut. Col. Conger, Lieut. L. B. Baker, Lieut. E. P. Dougherty, and detachment of the 15th New York cavalry-arrived at the navy-yard at half past two o'clock on the morning of the 27th of April, when the body of J. Wilkes Booth was placed on the Monitor Montauk, on which others charged with being concerned in the conspiracy were confined, and Herold was assigned to quarters on board. No visitors were allowed on board the monitors, but during the day large numbers of persons visited the yard and taw the body from the wharf, it being laid on a carpenter's bench on board the monitor placed near the turret of the vessel Surgeon General Barnes, with Surgeon Todd, of the monitor. and one or two army surgeons, made a post mortem examination of the body and removed two of the vertebrae, between which the ball which caused his death had passed. We can positively assert that this was the only portion of the body removed, and that the various reports put in circulation at the time. that his head was taken off, his heart taken out, &c , were entirely unfounded. A pine box had been made previously, in which to bury the remains, but this was not used, and about two o'clock on the day of its arrival up river, the body was wrapped in a gray army blanket, placed in a boat, in which was an officer of the monitor with four sailors, Gen. Baker, and two detectives. The boat proceeded down stream, and finally stopped at the lower Arsenal wharf. on which the body was placed; after which, the boat returned to the monitor, leving Gen. Baker and his assistants in the Arsenal grounds. Some few persons employed at the Arsenal saw the body lying there during the evening, but a report being put out that it was the body of a soldier who had been drowned, but little attention was paid to it. Two menwho had occasion to remove the body, having got some blood on their hands, came near spreading the report that it was Booth's body, but reing admonished to quietly wash the blood off, and keep their mouths shut, they did so, and but few persons became aware that the body was other than that of a drowned soldier, as had been been reported. The body remained on the wharf until after nightfall, when preparation were made for the interment Secretary Stanton, Gen. Dyer, Chief of Ord-nance, and Col. Benton, Commandant of the post, were on the ground, as well as Gen. Baker and his detectives. Three men of the laborers gang were sent for, and they were first directed to dig a grave in one of the penitentiary cells, but after taking up the brick flooring they came to the granite foundation laid in cement, and they pronounced the work impracticable. A spot was then selected in the wareroom, five or six feet south of the iron door opening into the prison from the Warden's Depart. ment, and they were directed to dig the grave to the depth of about ten feet. The grave being ready, the body, enclosed in an ammunition box, (arms case.) was brought in by tour of the ordnance men in charge of a sergeant, lowered into the grave, and it was filled, the brisk flooring being mostly replaced, and the surplus earth removed to another portion of the room. The burial having been accomplished, the windows were boarded up and the door made secure-Secretary Stanton taking the key with him. This key was kept at the War Department until a few weeks ago, when it was returned to the Arsenal officers On the receipt of the order for the removal of the bodies (including Booth's) on Tuesday, laborers were at once set to work and soon accomplished the work, taking them from the graves before mentioned and carrying them to No. 1 warehouse, where a trench was dug a few feet common grave, where their ashes will be min-ARREST OF DESERTERS AND ATTEMPTED Escape.-This morning Lieutenant Kelly, in charge of the detached force, arrested two men on the Avenue or suspicion of being deserters from the navy. They were taken to police headquarters, and in passing in one of them made a break from the officer, and the the other quickly followed, one running to his utmost speed down Louisiana avenue and the other turning into 4% street. At the time there was quite a number of persons about the place, including reporters and police lieutenants, and the chase was quite exciting; Mr. Proctor, of the Republican, being ahead of Captain Reed, and others after the Louisiana avenue man, who was finally captured. The chase after the other man was just as exciting, he being caught by Lieut. Essex. When taken into the detective office they declined to give their names, but one asserted that "Be jabers I've been round the wuruld twice; I have been in the Hinglish navy, from which I desarted; I've been in the Merican navy and desarted too. now do your best with me, and I'll desart again." They were locked up at headquar.

A CHARITABLE ENTERPRISE.-It will be seen by reference to another column that the "Orion Association" of this District, will give a grand tournament and festival pic-nic at Analo-tan Island, on the 7th and 8th inst., for the purpose of sending aid to the yellow fever sufferers at Mobile and Pensacola. We hope our citizens and residents will encourage this work by visiting the tournament where they can enjoy a pleasant evening, and at same orators, and the most neexceptionable judges will be present, and the committee of arrangements insure a pleasant and successful affair.

YOUTH AND BEAUTY .- The sight in the splendid ladies' saloon of Harvey's oysterreswinkt, comber of lith street and the Avenue, last evening, after the Opera, was a brilliant one. About one hundred ladies and gentle-men were there assembled, and among them many of the most fashionable and beautiful of the wives and daughters of Washington. The lower saloon, for gentlemen, was also crowded. Harvey's model, establishment is, no doubt, destined to become one of the institutions of the Federal Metropolis.

PREPARE FOR THE CHANGE OF WEATHER -Nothing is more essential to preserve health than proper covering for the feet, and few things are more beautiful than a neatly booted ankle. Beusty and comfort are combined in the boots and shoes of Mr. G. B. Wilson, 502 Seventh street, under Odd-Fellows' Hall, and all to be purchased for extremely low prices. as will be seen by reference to his advertisement else where in our paper.

OLDEST INHABITANTS.—The regular month-ly meeting of the Oldest Inhabitants' Associa-tion was held yesterday afternoon in the Council chamber, at the City Hall, Col. James L. Williams in the chair, and J. Carroll Brent,

Esq., secretary. Dr. J. B. Blake, of a committee appointed for the purpose, reported several amendments to the constitution of the association, which were adopted, among which was one providing for an officer to perform the duty of a marshal, when necessary: making the initiation fee $1; and, besides this, a monthly contribution of 25 cents; also, that when a member has been duly notified twice of dereliction of duty, he shall be liable to expulsion. Capt. S. Masi was then elected Marshal.

Nominations for membership being in order, the following were nominated and elected:— Rear Admiral L. M. Goldsborough, Capt. Wm. H. Nalley, Jas. S. Magee, John Fletcher, A. L. McIntire, Geo. M. Davis, John Butcher, Resin Arnold, Jacob Colclazier, Col. Chas. K. Gardner, Capt. Benj M. Dove, Dr. Geo. M. Dove, and James H. Boss. Dr. J. B. Blake offered a series of resolutions in respect to the memory of Col. Jas. L. Edwards, a Vice President of the association; which were unanimously adopted. Mr. M. Nash offered resolutions in respect to the memory of Richard Wimsatt; which were unanimously adopted. On motion of J. Carroll Brent, Esq., Messrs, Jenkin Thomas, and Richard Pettit, of Georgetown, were chosen as vice presidents of the association, to fill the vacancies occasioned by the deaths of Hon. Wm. A. Bradley and Col. James L. Edwards. Capt. Masi here presented a design for a badge of the association, suitable to be worn on the lappel of the coat. It is round, and about half an inch in diameter, bearing the words next to the outer edge of the badge: "Association of the Oldest Inhabitants." with the letters "D. C." across the center of the same: which was adopted. John F. Callan read an interesting history of the life of Father Matthew, formerly of St. Patrick's Church, which was listened to with great attention; after which the Association

JEWISH CONTRIBUTIONS FOR RELIEF OF THE YELLOW FEVER SUFFEREES .- A meeting was held last evening at the Jewish Syna. gogue, on 8th, between H and I streets, for the purpose of collecting funds for the relief of the sufferers from yellow fever in New Orleans. The meeting was presided over by H. L. Blout, Esq., President of the Hebrew Congregation of Washington, and the Rev. Jacob S. Jacobson acted as secretary.

Thos. J. Durant, of New Orleans, addressed the meeting, by invitation, portraying the suffering now existing there from the dread scourge of yellow fever, and hoped all our citizens would liberally respond to the call of

After a few remarks by other gentlemen, a subscription was started-Mr. Durant heading the list with $50-and the total amount subscribed was $278. The Chair then appointed the following com-

SELLING LIQUOR TO SOLDIERS .- In the case of James Lawn, arrested for selling liquor to soldiers, noticed in the Star of yesterday, a bearing was had before Justice Harper, when Mr. Hine, counsel for accused, put in a written plea of not guilty, and waived an examination, offering to give bail to answer any indictment that might be found against rim. The magistrate decided to hear the case, when a written plea of jurisdiction was put in, which being overruled, Mr. Lawn demanded that he be tried by a jury. After the hearing of the case by the magistrate, he reserved his decision until last evening, when the complaint was dismissed. Mr. Lawn, it will be recollected, was fined and his bar closed last week for the same alleged offence, but after his case was brought to the attention of Judge Wylie his bar was opened. The police are very properly keeping a close watch upon dealers in the ardent. Mr. Hine takes the ground that the act of Congress under which

Mr. Lawn was tried is unconstitutional. THE RIVER FRONT, OCT. 3 .- The steamer Wawaset made her usual excursion to Mount Vernon to-day. The crowd was not very great, though there were enough to ensure an agreeable time.

Carter's Wharf .- Sailed - Schrs. Octavia Ellen, Elliott, down the river, light; Bershebs. Gillmore, for Port Deposit, Maryland, light; Katle J. Hoyt, Parker, for Georgetown, to load with coal for an eastern port. Riley's Wharf -Sailed-Schr. Armada, Palmer, bound to Brown's wharf, to discharge part of cargo. Sixth Street Wharf .- Arrived-Steamer Express, Nichols, from Baltimore, with merchandise and passengers, and a fine lot of fat ovsters for Major Watt's Cottage Restaurant; schr. Coral, Myers, with wood for George D.

A NEW INSURANCE COMPANY .- We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement elsewhere of the National Capital Insurance Company, of this city, chartered by Congress at its last session. The officers are gentlemen well known in this city for their strict integrity and rare business qualifications, and we have no doubt the new company will get a large share of the patronage of the District. The company say they offer more favorable advantages to the insuring public than any other chartered in the United States, by combining the two great elements of life and accident insurance, on the joint stock principle, and that the premiums charged are nearly one-third lower than charged by mutual companies.

AN ERRONEOUS IDEA .- Many persons have the impression that Builders' hardware, sash, mouldings, and many other articles necessary in the erection or houses, can be purchased cheaper and of better quality elsewhere than in this city. This is a very great mistake, as there are establishments in this city equal to any of those elsewhere, and among them we may mention the Builders' Depot of H. W. Hamilton & Co., 562 7th street, where a very large business is being done in the articles we have mentioned, as well as others necessary for building purposes. Their stock is large and complete, and their prices low.

CHANGE OF LOCATION .- We understand that the Galt & Bre., jewelers, propose to move their jewelry establishment to their superb new building on Pennsylvania avenue, between 11th and 12th streets, so soon as the latter is completed. Messrs. Chas. L. Lockwood & Co., dealers in gentlemen's furnishing goods, have leased from Messrs. Galt the establishment now occupied by them near the Metropolitan Hotel.

TERBATS .- A colored woman, named Margaret Simms, was arrested this morning by Lieut. Hurley, of the police, on a warrant issued at the instance of John M. Latta, charging her with using threats o The accused appeared before Justice Chapin for examination, and was fined $3. The same party was charged on another warrant with disorderly conduct; but, as the offense was blended with the above, the case was dismissed.

"PREPARING FOR THE APPROACHING SES-SION."-In the article in the STAR of yesterday, under the above heading, we should have stated that Mr. John Alexander is engaged only in refurnishing the north-Senate -wing of the Capitol; it having been decided not to refurnish the Hall of the House of Representaives this season.

MILITARY -Last night, at the meeting of the National Guards, Capt. Harrover, a number of new members gave in their names, and a uniform similar to that of the Washington Zouaves was adopted. This company are preparing to give a ball, and expect to receive their uniforms very shortly, and before cold weather to make a parade.

CONSERVATIVE ARMY AND NAVY UNION .-The meeting of the Conservative Army and Navy Union, which was to have been held last evening, did not take place, the hall not heing ready for occupancy. This association has rented a large hall on Pennsylvania avenue, over the store of Roche & Co., which they will have fitted up in handsome style.

Wedding in High Lipe.—Henry Howard Esq., of the British Legation, and Miss Cecilia Riggs, daughter of Mr. George W. Riggs, banker, were married yesterday, at the country seat of the bride's father, in Prince Georges county, Md. Rev. Father Lynch officiated. The bride's trosseau embraced a superpocollection of diamonds and silks imported from Europe.

from Europe. BEAU HICKWAN ARRESTED.—Beau Hickman, a well known individual of this city, was arrested yesterday by officer Markwood for indecent exposure. He was taken before Justice Chapin who required him to pay a fine of $5. Beau remonstrated, but it was no use, and he had to fork over the cash.

PIGEON SHOOTING .- It having been announced that a pigeon shooting match would take place between Mr. Charles F. Williams, of Washington, and Mr. Gideon Yates, of Georgetown, a large crowd was attracted to Fletcher's field, in the rear of Kalorama, yesterday afternoon, and considerable interest evinced by the sports of the District. The match was $50 a side, with bounds of 25 yards, and raise of 18 yards. The contestants were to shoot 12 birds each and trap for the other; the birds to be flown from a ground trap, and each to shoot his number off. A toss for choice of first shots resulted in favor of Mr. Yates, but he declined in favor of Mr. Wil-

At 3% o'clock, everything being in readiness, Mr. Thomas P. Stacey, the umpire, ordered Mr. Williams to load and prepare to shoot. Mr. Williams, leading off, killed three birds in succession, missed one, killed the fourth, and shot the fifth, which, falling out of bounds, was declared no bird. Williams having six more single shots, succeeded in dropping that number of dead pigeons within the prescribed bounds. Having concluded, the result was 10

Mr. Yates was then announced, and betting began briskly, the offer being $100 to $75 in The trappers placing the bird, and the string pulled, Mr. Yates "bagged" his game, when betting again ran high. A second shot, and a m ss, had the effect of the Williams' side effering even bets that Yates would not win. The third shot secured his bird, but the fourth being a miss, the friends of Yates showed no disposition to bet further on their favorite, as at best it could only result in a tie, and they were not prepared to risk much in shooting off. The little "side shows" had no apparent effect on the nerves of Mr. Yates, and in seven successive shots he brought his "flyer" each time to mother earth. Eleven shots having been fired the friends of Mr. Yates exhibited considerable unessiness, as it was necessary for him to make his last shot effective in order to tie. The last shot was made, and Mr. Yates missed his bird; he killed nine birds of twelve, thereby being the loser by one bird. Much money changed hands on the result of the match and the losers not being satisfied, another match between the same parties is to

The wife of plaintiff died of cholera, and a lew hours before her death executed a will bequeathing certain property held in her own right. The plaintiff claims that at that time she was not capable of executing a valid deed or contract; while on the other hand the defendants assert that she was; and on this point the doctors do not agree—those who attended her asserting that at 9 o'clock on the morning of the day of her decease she was incapable of so acting, while the paper was executed at 11 o'clock. Some physicians assert that it is peculiar to cholera for the patient to PEDDLING .- This morning, Justice Harpen imposed a fine of twenty dollars upon a colored man, named James Rogers, arrested by Officer Cavanaugh, upon a warrant charging him with peddling a lot of tobacco about the streets. The accused, who represented himself to be a student at some theological institution in the District, denied the charge of attempting to sell his tobacco, a large lot of which was found on his person in a satchel. He stated that the tobacco had been obtain from Lynchburg for himself, on a recent visit there; but that during his absence a rule had been adopted at the seminary prohibiting its use among the students, and therefore he had no use for it, and was about giving it away when arrested. Proof was adduced, however, that he was trying to make a sale of it; so the justice adhered to his decision. In default of payment, he was locked up.

UNION WAR PRISONERS' ASSOCIATION. The regular monthly meeting of the Union War Prisoners' Association was held on Tuesday evening. Gen. Laselle in the chair. A committee, appointed for the purpose, reported that they had had an interview with the chairman of the Congressional committee on the treatment of prisoners of war, and that the chairman expressed his willingness to furnish the Union with the desired information as far as lay in his power. Testimony is now being sought, by circular, from all Union prisoners who suffered imprisonment in rebel stockades and other prisons. Gen. Laselle, Cols. Szabad and Henry, Major Van Buren, and others, addressed the Union. Major Williams reported preamble and resolutions of respect to the memory of Gen. A. Von Schrader, late Inspector General of the Army of the Cumberland, and Lieut. A. D. Renshaw, of the navy, which were unanimously adopted; and the association adjourned.

DISTRICT PRESENTERY .- The Presbytery of this District (New School) met at the First Constitutional Church, Baltimore, yesterday, o transact the usual fall business. The churches of Washington belonging to the Presbytery were fully represented, all the pastors and a number of laymen being present. Some discussion took place upon the ques-tion of attempting to effect a union between the two branches of the Presbyterian Church; but nothing was done, it being decided to be impracticable to consider it this time. An application was made by Rev. Mr. Dunning for a dissolution of the pastoral relation between himself and the First Constitutional Church of Baltimore, on account of his failing health from pulmonary disease, but the case did not come up for definite action. OVERBOARD.-A youth, named Henry Ma-OVERBOARD.—A youth, named Henry Ma-haffay, while engaged at play with some com-rades this morning, near the Long Bridge, missed his foothold in attempting to jump from one sailboat to another, and fell into the Potomac. The water being beyond his depth, and he not being able to swim, rendered his situation quite critical for a short while, fill one of the youths succeeded in pushing the stern of the craft towards him, when he was enable to reach young Mahaffay's hand and pulled him out. EXPENSIVE DOGS .- Wm. Turner came before Justice Harper yesterday afternoon, at the Fourth precinct attion house, charged by officer Pearson with keeping two dogs without a license, and was required to contribute $15 to the Corporation fund as a fine for this neglect. Catherape McKane, Francis Stewart, and H. Garety were arraigned before Justice Chapin, at the same station, charged with keeping one dog each without a license, and they were fined 55 each.
